

Telarus Commissions Experience

Ensuring Commission Accuracy and Delivery

The Challenge

Your hard work deserves to be rewarded with timely and accurate commissions. The tedious task of reconciling payments and chasing missing ones is not only a waste of your valuable time, but it also takes away your focus from growing your business and exploring new opportunities. Don't let the burden of commission tracking hinder your progress and motivation to drive your business forward.

Our Solution

Telarus Commissions Experience is a commission investigation service comprising of multiple dedicated teams working together to ensure that you receive the commissions you've earned through your hard work. You can trust our seasoned teams to deliver correct compensation, on-time, every time. We track current and projected commissions in real-time with CommissionVueTM dashboards, proactively identify and resolve any discrepancies in your commissions, and process your commission payments automatically, freeing you to focus on growing your business.

Key Benefits

- Frees you to focus on new business activity
- Resolves commission discrepancies timely
- Employs learnings to reduce new cases for similar situations
- Increases channel alignment between you and suppliers
- Ensures payment reliability to keep your business predictable
- Gives you insight into your future earnings and cash flow
